Pauline Marie Jaricot
Foundress of the Living Rosary and the Propagation of the Faith

(The following is a note written by the personal secretary of Fr. Naidenoff who worked with him on the large book planned to include all of the life and spirituality of ven. Pauline Marie Jaricot, foundress of the Living Rosary and Propagation of the Faith. Father was in charge of the cause of Pauline, and to preserve, consolidate and hand down the fire of her Heart and labors for Holy Mother the Church. Three years back Father Naidenoff, our support and director in this work of Pauline, suffered a stroke leaving him paralyzed on one side. Now his active labors for Pauline are over and he sets to work through his patient suffering and prayer to bring to the world the fire of her magnificent victim soul. Father is a man of few words, but his direction and support to us come straight from the heart of Pauline....)

Dear Patti,

I write again today after a long silence due to hospitalization and fatigue. Be sure that Fr. Naidenoff and I never forget our daily decades in the Living Rosary. We are constantly astonished by the growth of the Living Rosary. You walk in the footsteps of Pauline, who must be very pleased with you. We are happy that so many people pray to Pauline Jaricot through the Living Rosary. She is entirely forgotten in her beloved France.

A special thanks to you for your prayers for Fr. Naidenoff. This is a precious help to him in his state of total dependence.

May the God, who you serve so well, be always near you and may the Virgin Mary, who you make loved by so many, help you in your good work.

We express again our deep affection for you and our union with you in prayer.
